

MRS. LAMIRA YOUNG.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Lamira Young died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. J. Hylton, Cotopaxi, last Friday morning, in the ninetieth year of her age.

Mrs. Young was the sister of Rev. B. Frank Moore, of this city. She leaves three children: Mrs. Sarah Hardin, this city.; Mrs. M. C. Belknap, Hillside, Colo. and Mrs. L. J. Hylton. She was born in Bedford co., Tenn., June 19th, 1809; in 1831 she married Mr. William Stokes, who died in 1833; shortly after this she and her family moved to Missouri, where she married, in 1840, Mr. James Young, who died in 1846.

Mrs. Young crossed the plains seven times, making her home finally in this county, and the last year of her life with her daughter, Mrs. Hylton. She became a christian at the age of 12 years, uniting with the Cumberland Presbyterian church and faithfully served God for 77 years of her life. She was a noble woman, always ready to respond to a case of need; a true friend, who in her long life did the good that came to hand, with kindly word and hand ministering to all. The fragrance of her memory is sweet, and she still lives in the influence of her beautiful example. Our loss is her gain, for she hath now entered into the glorious rest of the children of God, where we shall again meet her.

The funeral services were celebrated by the Rev. W. J. Fisher, Pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church of Canon City, at Cotopaxi, Dec. 10. 1898.

F.

For the nobbiest neck wear call at Bethel's.